Northern College

Community & Social Action

Prejudice and Stereotypes

Strong communities are at the heart of any society. Equality and understanding have a valuable place in bringing communities together.

What are the entry requirements?

No formal qualifications are required to study this course. A willingness to learn is essential.

Need more information?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer by calling us on 01226 776000 or emailing us courses@northern.ac.uk

Course description

This course will explore what prejudice and stereotypes are, how they are formed and the actions which can be taken to challenge them.

This course is aimed at anyone who works in the Voluntary and Community Sector but would also be useful for anyone who has an interest in exploring how prejudice and stereotypes are influencing the world we live and work in.

What can this course lead to?

Other Exploring courses you could go on are:

Exploring Women in Leadership
Exploring Mentoring
Exploring Volunteering.

Or you could progress onto:

Interpersonal Skills (Level 1)
Investigating Enterprise (Level 1).

Possible careers include Community Worker and charity work.

Want to learn more?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer at one of our Open Events [https://www.northern.ac.uk/open-events/]

Location

1-Onsite

Last updated: 8th January 2024