Course description

This short course is a progression from the Forest Confidence course. You will revise and refresh skills learned on Forest Confidence, with the addition of exploring the theory of fire, fire safety and learn how to light a contained fire. Risk assessment will also be covered in this course, as safety is a key concept in Forest courses.

You will learn transferrable skills which will prepare you for study or work, as well as spending time in the beautiful grounds of Wentworth Castle.

What can this course lead to?

After this course you might like to do some English, maths or digital learning.
