Course description

This course will explore basic first aid skills, including how to assess an incident requiring first aid and will provide practical advice on how to provide first aid to someone who is unresponsive.

What can this course lead to?

This course is beneficial for those who have been out of education or work for a while and are looking to gain new knowledge and skills. You could progress on to further short courses such as Mental Health First Aid before undertaking a First Aid qualification. Our Student Support Services team will work with you to design a personalised learning journey based on your needs and aspirations.
