Course description

If you are not sure what your next steps should be, then read on. On this one-day course, you will be invited to spend the day at college and work on developing a learning pathway which is tailor-made for you and your goals. You will learn how to research new opportunities online, demonstrate how to communicate effectively in a team, identify your key strengths, and complete a simple action plan for progression. Why not join us and start your journey?
