Course description

Are you interested in getting more active? Would you like to be able to engage with your community members to become more active with their families, and others in their local community? Join us in the amazing grounds of Wentworth Castle and find strategies for making this happen.

You will learn about:

- how to run outdoor group activities
- how to get families engaging in teamwork
- ways to engage members of your community to participate

You can make a difference to your community for the benefit of everyone. Why not come along and find out more?
