Course description

Are you running a community group or looking to start one? Do you know what your responsibilities are around health and safety? If the answer is no, or if you think you could do with a refresher, then this is the course for you. During this course, we will cover the responsibilities that voluntary and community groups have for the health and safety of anyone who works, volunteers or is part of the group. We will also look at the roles and responsibilities of individuals and introduce the health and safety regulations.

What can this course lead to?

Other Introduction courses you could go on are: Introduction to Starting your Community Group Introduction to Social Action. Or you could progress onto: Exploring Workplace Rights Exploring Discrimination and Stereotypes.
