Course description

This professional development qualification provides essential knowledge and skills to anyone wanting to actively support individuals with learning disabilities.

The course is suitable for people who come into contact with individuals with learning disabilities as part of their job. This could include people in community and volunteering roles or working in education, leisure and employment support.

You will need to be working, volunteering or on practical placement to undertake this course as you need to show competence in both knowledge and skills.

On completion of this course, you will achieve:

- NCFE Level 2 Award in Supporting Individuals with Learning Disabilities
