

Trade Union Studies

TUC Health and Safety Stage 1

Health and Safety at work is always a major issue for all employees. Workplaces that have trade union health and safety reps have a significantly lower rate of accidents. On this course you will find out what it means to be a union health and safety rep, how to investigate hazards, raise issues with organisations, how best to represent members effectively and how to take up both collective and individual health and safety issues with your employer.

What are the entry requirements?

Students must be trade union representatives.

Need more information?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer by calling us on 01226 776000 or emailing us_courses@northern.ac.uk

Course description

The aims of the course are to enable health and safety reps to work effectively by organising for health & safety, building a broad knowledge and understanding of how to improve workplace safety, balance negotiating with employers to prevent accidents and ill health whilst applying H&S legislation.

What can this course lead to?

The Next Steps for Safety Reps (Health and Safety Stage 2)

Want to learn more?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer at one of our Open Events [<https://www.northern.ac.uk/open-events/>]

Location

Off-site

Last updated: 5th August 2025