

Access to University

Access to Education Professions

If you've ever considered becoming a teacher, or you're currently working in a support role in a school and want to take your career to the next level, an online Access to Higher Education Diploma (Education Professions) can help.

When does this start and end?	What are the entry requirements?	Need more information?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">4 November 2024 - 27 June 2025	You will need a GCSE in English Grade 9-4 (A*-C) or Functional Skills English Level 2. Previous experience in the subject, through work or education, is desirable. To secure a place on this course you will be required to attend an interview and demonstrate sufficient reading and writing skills.	You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer by calling us on 01226 776000 or emailing us courses@northern.ac.uk

Course description

The Access to Higher Education Diploma (Education Professions) acts as the ideal preparation for a Bachelor of Education. Its education and development focused modules provide you with knowledge specific to teaching and education and can be used as an equivalent to three A-Levels.

Throughout the course, you will learn all about how to manage behaviour in the classroom. You will explore numerous topics that will shed light on the development of children, from the psychology of learning to theories of child development, disability and special education needs.

At a glance:

- 100% online study
- Change your career and become a teacher
- Understand education and development
- Completion possible in 9-12 months
- Study a degree without A Levels
- Learn at your pace
- No Exams

Want to learn more?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer at one of our Open Events [<https://www.northern.ac.uk/open-events/>]

Location

Online

Course session dates

Completion possible in 9-12 months – 100% online study

Last updated: 15th October 2024