

Health Sciences

End of Life Awareness (Introduction)

The course provides a safe and supportive learning environment to explore the foundations of end of life.

When does this start and end?	What are the entry requirements?	Need more information?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">8 November 2025 - 9 November 2025	No formal qualifications are required to study this course. A willingness to learn is essential.	You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer by calling us on 01226 776000 or emailing us courses@northern.ac.uk

Course description

The course provides a safe and supportive learning environment to explore the foundations of end of life. Learners will be introduced to what end of life is and when it may be needed. Learners will also explore the holistic needs of individuals approaching end of life.

Whether you're seeking greater confidence in your personal life or preparing or upskilling for future roles in the care sector, this course offers valuable insights for developing an understanding of end of life.

This course could appeal to those who are supporting individuals with life limiting illnesses. It aims to provide information and guidance surrounding end of life support, aiding dignity in dying. It can support with building confidence around difficult conversations relating to death and dying.

What can this course lead to?

Learners who complete this course could progress to the following:

- Exploring Careers in Health and Social Care Sector
- Level 1 Award in Stress Awareness
- Level 1 Award in Mental Health Awareness

Learners could gain confidence to seek out volunteering roles in health

Want to learn more?

You can find out more about Northern College and the courses on offer at one of our Open Events [<https://www.northern.ac.uk/open-events/>]

Course session dates

Session dates for 8 November 2025 - 9 November 2025

- Saturday 08 Nov 2025 to Sunday 09 Nov 2025

Last updated: 8th October 2025